A Year of People

Foreword

This, the 1969 Aquila, records another year of the history and honor of North Central High School.

As the years roll by and memory begins to fail us, the yearbook will be there to remind us of people, places, and events. Inside the covers of this book, the annual staff has tried to capture and present just a few of the many highlights of the 1968-69 school year.

In presenting this yearbook to you, we hope you find as much pleasure in reading it as we have had in publishing it.

The Eagle's boundaries extend in many directions. Let's get a closer look at some of the different things that happen in Eagle Country . . .

In the Gym . . .

In the Auditorium . . .

In the Cafeteria . . .

And in the Classroom.

Ready
Gang?

Let's Go!

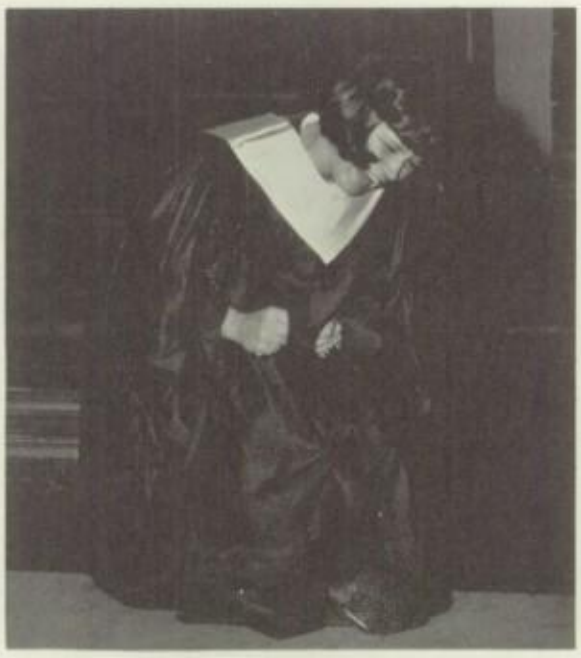
Since this is our home 7 hours a day, 5 days a week, 9 months of the year, we might as well make it as homey as possible . . .

The spirit this year has really had a boost, with pep sessions and spirit signs.

Planning sessions were essential to good spirit . . .

The Music Department has shared in the increased enthusiasm of the students this year.



With the addition of new staff, the science department has grown larger.

Christmas was a specialty this year with parties and the Senior's dance.

The Juniors highlighted the end of the year festivities by dedicating their prom to the Seniors.

In the midst of all this confusion . . .

. . . We do find time to study.

Well, it looks like we lost some of the gang

but we won't worry because we know they're somewhere in EAGLE COUNTRY!

Dedication

1969 Junior-Senior Prom

Pep Session

The 1969 Annual Staff would like to dedicate this year's AQUILA to Mr. Lynn Lamberson, who has worked so diligently as chorus director and advisor for the Class of 1970.

In 1966 and '67 the chorus went to state contest. In 1967 they put on the Musical, MISSISSIPPI MELODIES, which was a huge success. In 1968 they had a candle sale at Christmas to purchase choir robes. This year they put on the Musical, OKLAHOMA, another great accomplishment.

Without Mr. Lamberson's hard work and long hours none of this would have been possible. So at this time the 1969 Aquila Staff wishes to thank you.

Thank You

Seniors Look Back

Eighth grade graduation ended our childish years (supposedly). As approximately 54 giddy kids entered North Central High School, the upperclassmen knew that a distinct group of students had evolved. During our Freshman year some of us began to make ourselves known. We were allowed two money-making projects. We sponsored a car wash and a bake sale, which got us our first honest dollar in the treasury. We also chose the motto, color, and class flower which would be with us through our high school career.

It wasn't long before we were Sophomores. We thought up a lot of tortures to try on the new Freshmen, but new rules added to problems of initiation. It was that year that we began to join in the various extracurricular activities. As 10th graders we had to choose a class flower, motto, and colors again because our efficient class secretary lost the previous year's selections. We also had a dance which was a success, more or less, and a skating party.

Our journey's end became nearer when we were Juniors. We were given the responsibility of the candy sales. We sponsored a Friday the 13th dance and another car wash. As Juniors we put on a play, "Hot Ice" which was a success. "Three Coins in a Fountain" was the theme of our prom, which was a lot of hard work but another great success of the class of 1969.

On September 3, 1968, 41 of us entered our Senior year. Most of the faculty was new and pranksters were quickly acquainted with the "board of education." In the fall, we accepted the job of selling magazines to again increase our class funds. Our Senior Class play was "Tell it to Ethel." The next big project was the Christmas dance. Julie Fackler and Jim Walkup were chosen King and Queen. In early spring we sponsored a chili supper which gave us sufficient funds in our treasury. The highlight of our senior year was the highly successful trip to Washington and New York. Graduation came next with happiness and a little remorse. We feel that we have added our mark to the history of North Central, and that we have reached the top of the mountain even though the rocks were rugged.

As juniors, the Class of 1970 added another step to their climb up the ladder of success by adding a lot of money to their account.

They started out by including ice cream (a big seller) to the noon candy sales. Then came the money from the Mothers' Club carnival and the Home and Products Show.

Besides doing a great job on their play, "Three Fingers in the Door" they had a drawing for two $100 savings bonds that same night.

Keeping themselves busy, they put on a lovely Prom, which no one will forget.

To bring the year to a money-making close, they presented the movie "A Patch of Blue."

We came into our Sophomore year with a little more experience than we had last year. The class decided that this was a good year to build up our treasury, so we held three money-making projects. A movie sponsored by the class, "Red Line 7000," was our first attempt. The next project was a very successful spaghetti supper held before the Faculty vs Arkansas Lassies basketball game. A lot of time and effort was put into our dance featuring "The Badge" which went over big. We also had booths at the Mothers Club Carnival and the Home and Products Show which helped put money into our treasury.

All in all it was a very exciting year as we ordered our rings and worked to earn the spirit trophy.

On September 3, 1968, 60 freshmen entered North Central High School to begin their four years towards one day in June, 1972.

They had a very busy first year with carnivals and other money-making projects. For the Mothers' Club Carnival they had the football throw as their booth. Ring-around-the-pop bottle was the booth set up for the Home and Products show.

The next big event for the Frosh was their bowling party. To climax the year as well as to add money to their treasury, they had a skating party which was a big success.

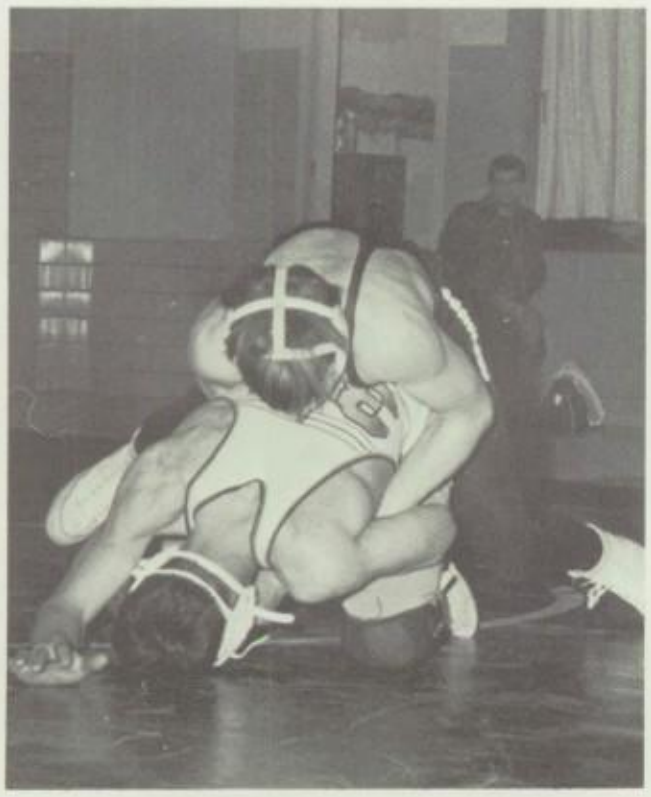
WARREN PEARSON



Following a season of five wins, seven losses, and one draw, the Wrestling team was well represented at the district tournament where Dick Gruber lost a close match in the finals of the consolation round.

The boys look forward to next year's season with only two seniors leaving the squad.
